To Whom It May Concern:

Currently, I have been involved with the Milk Program for Wellesley School for over sixteen years. During that time we have utilized three suppliers. Moo-Cow Distributing is, without exception, the most reliable, consistent, obliging company we have had the pleasure of dealing with.

Their entire staff, from the order desk to the drivers, is courteous, friendly and very willing to give that extra effort to make our school milk program run smoothly. It is a pleasure to work with a company that provides such efficiency and customer satisfaction.

If I may offer any further confirmation of the outstanding service provided by Moo-Cow Distributing, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Sandra Martin
